

We in broadcasting feel that it is unfair to put the burdon and expense of recording and storing our entire broadcast day for an indefinite amount of time, when there has been no complaint about our programming practices. With the move to HDTV broadcasters are "under the gun" financially and their manpower is being stretched too thin as it is.

We are also devoting a large amount of resources and manpower dealing with all of the paperwork associated with EEO, HIPPA, and Sarbanes/Oxley, as well as just trying to do our jobs that relate to actually getting programming on the air.

Please reconsider the burden this would place on a small market station and it's staff.

Sincerely,

Ronnie Weston
